

ROTARY INTERNATIONAL

The Four Way Test

'Of the things we think, say or do'.

1. Is it the TRUTH
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned
3. Will it Build GOODWILL
And better FRIENDSHIPS
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all

ROTARY GRACE

We break thy bread in brotherhood
And thank thee Lord for all things good.
May we more blessed than we deserve
Live less for self and more to serve

SPOTS (CONT)

Michael Fitzgerald: Confirmed meeting on 28 July at Glenleighdon School and as they are unable to provide a meal it was resolved that we would have a "cheap" meal with the balance of our dinner fee being donated to Glenleighdon.

Bob Rogers: Informed members that he has access to tickets for Mary McKillop (29 Aug), West Side Story (1 Sept) and Wicked (Jan 2011)

Bill Waterfield: Thanked all members and partners who attended DIK last weekend (15). He identified the statistics involving the work of Kenmore members over the past 20 years

Bob Cleland: Advised members of the upcoming Peace and Understanding Dinner and Lecture to be held at International House on Friday 19 Sept. There is no charge for the event but numbers are required to assist catering. Bob will send a board around shortly

Bill Orford: Bill spoke about the Camarada Orchestra that his wife is involved in supporting. This is a Youth focused initiative and he will be selling raffle tickets over coming Weeks

Judy Zavier: Spoke about on-going needs in Sri Lanka

A LITTLE LIGHT RELIEF

- Man goes to the doctor, with a strawberry growing out of his head. Doc says 'I'll give you some cream to put on it.'
- 'Doc I can't stop singing 'The Green, Green Grass of Home'
'That sounds like Tom Jones syndrome.'
'Is it common?'
'It's not unusual....'
- A man takes his Rottweiler to the vet. 'My dog is cross-eyed, is there anything you can do for him?'
'Well,' said the vet, 'let's have a look at him.'
So he picks the dog up and examines his eyes, then he checks his teeth. Finally, he says, 'I'm going to have to put him down.' 'What? Because he's cross-eyed?'
'No, because he's really heavy'
- 'What do you call a fish with no eyes?
A fish.'
- Apparently, 1 in 5 people in the world are Chinese. There are 5 people in my family, so it must be one of them. It's either my mum or my Dad, or my older brother Colin, or my younger brother HoCha-Chu. But I think it's Colin.

President's Notes

Wednesday evening was a great example of all that Members and our guests bring to weekly meetings.

Alan Biggs and Ian Simpson took us on an entertaining world trip. We were given stories of determination and achievement, along with plenty of humour.

Thank you Alan and Ian.

Past President Judy Xavier visited with guest George Tynan, and spoke briefly on the needs of Sri Lanka, reminding us of earlier assistance given by Kenmore Rotary.

Visiting partners added to the pleasure of the evening - Nancy Rogers, Nancy Stevens, and Karen Simpson. We welcomed Tony Coyle, guest of David Lock, on a return visit from Melbourne. Dai Reynolds, our visiting Rotarian, will be inducted as a Member of Kenmore Rotary on 21 July. Welcome Dai.

We gathered as a group of 44, from many parts of the world, and with many different stories, and shared the occasion as one.

Subject: New Member Introductions

Speaker: Ian Simpson

- Born in England in a small village near Ipswich.
- Mother was the local teacher so he had to behave himself as Mum would be told about any misdemeanours
- Became interested in leathers and motor cycles, much to his mother's concern.
- Gained an engineering apprenticeship but his dexterity was found wanting when he put a steel rod through the roof of the workshop.
- Was moved to the "safer" confines of the office and became engaged in running training centres around the country, operating from mobile buses.
- Ian provided an interesting and humorous aspect of his life on the road in Europe particularly Sweden and France
- Moved to London to complete a Diploma of Management
- Moved to Halifax in Yorkshire to complete an MBA
- In 1980 he moved to New Zealand to lecture on Operations Management
- After about 20 years in computer technology he and wife Karen moved to the Gold Coast and thence to Brisbane where he now manages a mortgage broking business .
- Ian admits to having an extrovert hiding away as he is doing some modelling for TV adverts.

New Members, Alan Biggs and Ian Simpson following their life histories were presented to Members and Guests last week

INAUGURAL KENMORE LADIES AFTERNOON

On July 11, Kerri Horsbrugh hosted the first Kenmore Ladies afternoon for the year. There were 28 attendees who enjoyed an afternoon of coffee, cakes and conversation.

A big thank you to the waiters Bob Rogers and Ted Horsbrugh who were resplendent in their waiters outfits.

Everyone had a great time.

How is this for "off street" parking. Well done Ted.

Wow!! You look like you may have found yourself a second vocation Bob. Banking was never that good.....
